

Do you have experiences of looking after a child with acquired brain injury (ABI)?

I am looking for parents caring for their child with ABI to interview

What the study is about

A study of the personal experiences of parents of children with acquired brain injury (ABI), along with enhancing liaisons with the professionals: Utilising Thematic Analysis (University of Wolverhampton)
By L. Cooper, Dr. D. Matheson & Dr. E. Danks

Type of interview

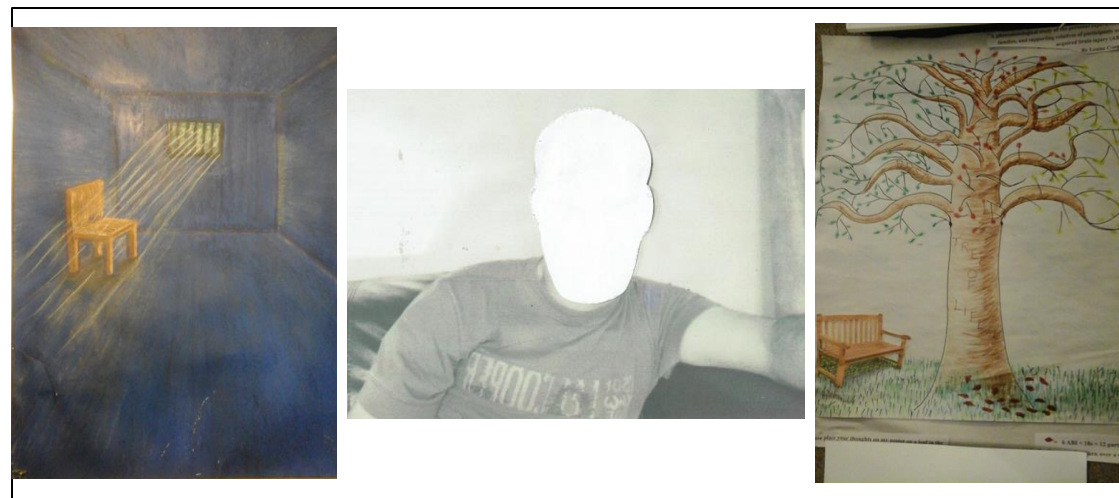

- These will be one-to-one interviews online (1 hour) with Louise, the lead researcher
- At a time which suits you
- My questions will be about your lived experience

Who I want to take part in it

- I wish to interview parents of a child with ABI

What I wish the reader to do

- Are a parent of a child with ABI
- Willing to take part in an interview
- Your experiences matter
- As I too have a child with ABI
- Please will you contact me at l.cooper14@wlv.ac.uk

How I felt with my Son with ABI & Tree of Life (green leaves of the past;
dead leaves of the present & buds of the future)